A charming and deceptively spacious period cottage situated within the town's conservation and the heart of Kirkbymoorside, offering well-presented accommodation arranged over three floors. The property combines character features with modern comforts, making it an ideal main residence, second home or investment opportunity.

The ground floor is centred around a welcoming sitting room with feature fireplace, leading through to a well-fitted kitchen with ample storage and workspace. There is the benefit of gas-fired central heating throughout, ensuring comfortable living across all levels. To the rear, the property enjoys a small enclosed yard, perfect for low-maintenance outdoor seating or storage.

The first floor provides a generous double bedroom along with a well-appointed bathroom and access to a delightful first-floor balcony, offering an elevated outdoor space ideal for morning coffee or evening relaxation. The second floor hosts a further spacious bedroom with its own bathroom facilities, creating a flexible layout well suited to guests, home working or independent living arrangements.

Throughout, the property displays a sense of character and warmth, with exposed beams and traditional detailing complementing the practical and versatile floor plan.

Kirkbymoorside is a popular and thriving market town offering a wide range of local amenities including independent shops, cafés, public houses, community primary school, sports facilities, padel courts and regular bus services. The town sits on the edge of the North York Moors National Park, providing easy access to outstanding countryside, walking and cycling routes, while remaining convenient for Helmsley, Pickering, York and the East Coast.
