Occupying a truly enviable elevated position high above the picturesque Rosedale Valley, End Cottage is a charming three-bedroom detached stone cottage boasting breathtaking panoramic views across the North York Moors National Park.

The property offers deceptively spacious accommodation of over 1,000 sq.ft., including a generous kitchen/dining room, an impressive sitting room with stunning views, three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside, the cottage benefits from an enclosed courtyard together with useful outbuildings and stores, elevated gravelled patio with lawn beyond.

The spectacular setting is undoubtedly one of the property's greatest assets. From its elevated position on historic Chimney Bank, the cottage enjoys far-reaching views stretching across the surrounding countryside, creating a wonderful sense of peace and seclusion whilst remaining part of a welcoming rural community.

Rosedale is one of the North York Moors' most sought-after villages, renowned for its dramatic scenery, excellent walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits. Local amenities include a village church, community facilities, cafés and public houses, whilst the market towns of Kirkbymoorside, Pickering and Helmsley are all within convenient driving distance and provide an excellent range of shops, schools, leisure facilities and everyday services.

Whether as a permanent residence, country retreat or holiday home investment, End Cottage represents a rare opportunity to acquire an attractive period cottage in an outstanding National Park location with some of the most captivating views in North Yorkshire.
