A rare lifestyle opportunity to acquire a fine residence with fabulous views across the Dale within the outstanding North York Moors National Park, standing in approximately 3 acres and including the main residence, a separate games room/gym/sitting room with kitchen, ideal for entertaining, with attached office, an outbuilding with planning permission for an annex offering great flexibility, garage, stores, formal gardens, wild garden, tennis court, woodland, holding paddock of approximately 0.7 acres, orchard with vegetable garden extending to just over 0.75 acres, and a substantial parking area.

The residence has undergone substantial refurbishment and benefits from porcelain tiled underfloor heating throughout the ground floor. Accommodation comprises a front entrance hall, two reception rooms, study, Italian designer fitted kitchen, utility room, cloakroom, dog wash room, store and boiler room. To the first floor are five bedrooms, a landing and four bath/shower rooms fitted with Villeroy & Boch sanitary ware.

Nearby amenities include a railway station with services to Middlesbrough and Whitby, together with a primary school, doctor's surgery, pub and bakery. Close by is Castleton, offering a Co-op and café. Guisborough and Whitby are within easy reach by car, as are the popular ancient market towns of Pickering, Helmsley and Kirkbymoorside to the south of the National Park. The coastal resorts of Sandsend, Staithes and Robin Hood's Bay are also readily accessible.
